1. Count the number of "ones" that you marked. Write that number in the Tally Box marked #1. Do the same with the numbers two, three, and four.
2. On the first scale, draw a line through the number on the bar graph that corresponds with your total number of "ones." This is the end line for your bar graph.
3. Beginning at the left end, shade the space on the bar up to your end line on the first bar graph.
4. Do the same for the second, third, and fourth graphs.
5. The longest bar is your predominant style. The second longest bar is your backup style.
